

We Present our.. Presenters!

Amber Van Hove With a hobby farm of my own, I've had to learn the skills of farming and animal husbandry that I did not learn growing up in the city. Learning these skills is what lead me into the trade of sheep shearing. After earning certification through the Univer

Andrew Wollman-Simson I have been a potter in Whatcom County since 1990, both professionally and as a hobbyist. I have been pursuing pottery since 1973, hen I was in middle school in Honolulu. I have owned two pottery businesses in Washington.

Bruce 'Spruce' Horowitz is a certified permaculture designer and teacher, composter educator and holds a master's degree in Sustainable Community. He is dedicated to planetary prosperity through permaculture.

Celt is an experienced gardener, vegetable breeder and urban homesteader.

Christy Cusick long time urban farmer and co-founder of Seattle Farm Coop. Seattle Farm Co-op supports the urban farming community, food justice, and the sustainable food movement by offering educational outreach and operating a retail outlet.

Dr Todd Humphrey is a graduate of Bastyr University and was practicing with Dr Bartlett when he was creating Matrix Energetics. and uses multiple modalities but esp Alchemy Energy Harmonics his own personal baby that came to him over 4yrs ago

Floyd Garner grew up on a primitive homestead before joining the military and becoming a Survival Instructor. He has taught primitive skills and modern survival since his retirement and enjoys old tools and new ideas.

Irene Hinkle holds a Master's Degree in Sustainability Education and has been teaching preschool through adults for over 35 years. She has taught Solar Heater building at Olympia area events and her business, Woodard Creek Homestead, is stocked.

Jennie Bryan-Goforth is a WSU Food Preservation Specialist, and long time resident of Finney Farm where she manages orchard, annual gardens, and food preservation.

Joshua Hale, Kara, Tori A Casual Hero. Charming Optimist. Yogi Dj. Trivium Method & NVC Apprentice. Autodidact: Self-Directed Perpetual Learner. The Identity Movement

Kathleen Grimby is a Kripalu yoga teacher & yoga therapist who works with all ages and abilities, from folks on walkers to athletes. She works with individuals & teaches group classes.

Lavanya has practiced and taught Bhakti Yoga for over thirty years, journeying to India and elsewhere. On her sustainable homestead work is play and play is work.

Michelle K Van Slyke I live in Alger and have been making salves, soap, and more for 8 years. I sell my products at several farmers markets. This will be my third year with the Skillshare. My passion is helping others.

Michelle Mahler is an Aromatherapist, Magical Fairy Alchemist, and Proprietor of Circle of Healing Organic Essential Oil Remedies. She creates healing remedies with only pure, organic essential oils, which work on all levels of your being- mental, spiritual and physical.

Nancy Drew 73 year old organic gardener and activities professional.

Natasha Clarke is a local herbalist helping introduce and excite people about our native medicinal herbs and how to use their wisdom. She has her own herbal practice in Stanwood and is heard weekly on KSER with her radio show "the Herb Hunter".

Robert Bajema DIY Electric Bike Conversion A maker of sorts with a passion for green means of travel as part of a low-carbon lifestyle.

Shannon Robertson, the name of my business is Whatcom Willow Works. I've been making willow baskets for about eight years. I've shared my skill at the Cascadia skill share the last 4 years. I have recently began teaching workshops. I am excited

Steven Anderson The Bellingham Metal Arts Guild is a non-profit dedicated to promoting and supporting the metal arts in our local community. We provide classes, workshops and information which can be found on our website BMAG-WA.org

Suzanne Glick I am a local fiber artist homesteading and homeschooling in Maple Falls. My passion for keeping ancient fiber crafts alive led me into farming and community building sharing skills.

Terri Wilde is an herbalist, forager and permaculturalist. She did a lot to organize this Faire...give her a hug. :)

The Whatcom County Library System will have a portable library where books on all Skillshare topics can be checked out.